Events at TLCS

Events at TLCS will always be announced through our normal methods of communication: Diary/Newsletter/Facebook/Twitter/letter or text. If your child communicates something to you that you haven't heard first from one of those channels, please contact the HOD for clarification.

“ Careful the things you say, Children will listen. Careful the things you do, Children will see and learn. Children may not obey, but children will listen. Children will look to you for which way to turn, To learn what to be. Careful before you say, Listen to me! Children will listen. ”

Stephen Sondheim

Congratulations to Nicole Mtetwa who has been chosen for the Yale African Young Scholars program to be hosted in Ghana later this year!

We are experiencing some very bad language on our campus as well as derogatory terms for others. This is happening from preschool through secondary. It is important that we as adults model the proper behavior and know the friends of our children. The Bible tells us to be "Kind to one another". That doesn't mean just giving to a charitable cause but every day, in every conversation - be kind. Please help us communicate this to our children.

Parent Teacher Meeting..

Wednesday, June 20 is our Parent-Teacher Meeting for Term Two. We are excited for the opportunity to meet with you. Our meetings start at 3pm.

Parents should collect their children at 1PM. Late fees will apply for children left on campus. The campus will close at 1:30 PM and reopen at 3PM. Our teachers will be here to meet you until 6PM. We expect all parents to attend on this day, unless there is an emergency. Special appointments will not be arranged for those who do not choose to attend.

Secondary students should attend the conference with their parents.

TLCS hosts CNN

We are honored to be chosen as one of the schools to be included in a feature on One Modisane, the founder of Young Chefs Academy which will be seen on African Voices. They are scheduled to be on campus filming Thursday morning.
